

An Aesthetic Realism Cabaret

About Love & Everyone's Hopes!

Come and hear unforgettable performances of some of the most loved and timeless songs, with thrilling comment on their meaning for our lives—by singers from the acclaimed Aesthetic Realism Theatre Company. The basis is the philosophy Aesthetic Realism, founded by the great American poet and critic Eli Siegel, who explained:

“All beauty is a making one of opposites, and the making one of opposites is what we are going after in ourselves.”

---

—Some Tributes to the Theatre Company's Productions—

“Great! Better than anything I've seen on Broadway in the past 25 years!”

—Phillip Rose, Broadway producer, Raisin in the Sun

“We were delighted to have the Aesthetic Realism Theatre Company provide a terrific and exhilarating performance.”

—Director, Arts Organization

“I was so pleased by the talent, professionalism, and the content of the performance, and so was my audience!”

—Library Program Coordinator

Admission free

The Aesthetic Realism Foundation is a not-for-profit educational foundation

AestheticRealism.org • 212.777.4490